

Utsalady Elementary School AAP
 Goals and Strategies for Realizing our Current-Year Vision
 For Year: 2023-2024

Goals Based on our school’s SIP data and 3-year trajectory, our school’s goals for THIS YEAR are: Imagine a student sitting in a seat in your classroom; what will they do?	Strategies Our school’s teaching and learning strategies that will result in the attainment of our goals THIS YEAR are: Imagine a teacher providing instruction in front of their class; what will they do?
Math <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will improve their fluency with math facts to solve complex problems more productively. • Students will improve in their number sense to leverage authentic, real-world story problems. 	Math <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers will utilize school-wide math strategies relating to fluency and number sense across classrooms. • Teachers will prioritize strategies for fluency and number sense during math instruction • Teachers will utilize conversation structures/protocols to support student dialogue in math
Literacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be engaged readers, able to communicate their grade level and appropriate level of comprehension in conversation and in writing. 	Literacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers will design and implement a Flex Block framework and reflect, revisit, and redesign mid-year to address the individual learning needs of all students. • Teachers will develop a collaborative understanding of the essential learning targets of each Amplify CKLA unit.
MTSS (behavior support) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will demonstrate persistent self-control and respect for themselves and others in order to be available to take academic risks and engage in higher-order thinking. 	MTSS (behavior support) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers will create a positive, unifying environment and climate, emphasizing relationships and rapport with students and among students